So it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Semmes, the house proceeded to consider the bill, reported by Mr. Potter, from the committee on ways and means, entitled, An act to abolish all that part of the constitution and form of government as requires the appointment of a register of the land office, on the eastern shore. And the same having been read the second time;

On motion by Mr. Martin, the question was propounded, Shall the further consideration of said bill be referred to the next general assembly? And it was determined in the negative. The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass? And the yeas and nays, being required by seven members, were taken, and appeared as follow:
